

DEAL ANALYSIS OF TEXT

Instructions¹

For each of the sections below, write a complete sentence that either makes a statement or asks a question about the text. Make sure that your statements and questions reflect analysis of the text beyond the literal and present information that will surprise or enlighten other members of the class. Include page numbers where appropriate.

Device

Identify a place where the author uses a powerful rhetorical or literary device and describe its impact on the work as a whole.

Epiphany

Epiphany is defined as a sudden and profound understanding of something. Identify a moment when you realized something profound about a character, the plot, a symbol or something else in the text.

Amazing Passage

Identify a passage that was especially beautifully written. Be prepared to defend your choice!

Lingering Question

Identify a question you were left pondering at the end of the reading.

¹ Assignment adapted from the TQE Method by Marisa Thompson.